

Advanced Life Support

Target Audience

This course is recommended for Health care providers who require Advanced Life Support (ALS) certification.

CPD/ CME

This course is accredited within Northern Sydney Local Health District (NSLHD).
It is also accredited with ANZCA.
Australian New Zealand College of Anaesthetists (ANZCA) –
Activity # ER-14-CA-052

Description

Program:

The ALS course comprises of an e-learning component & face to face learning. The course complies with the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) standards.
The program involves: Rotating workshops and simulation scenarios. The program is also inclusive of ALS assessment.

Specific Objectives

- Recognition, assessment & management of the critically ill patient using a structured ABCDE approach
- Airway management skills
- Basic Life Support skills
- Defibrillation skills (manual & AED)
- Cardiac arrest management using the ARC ALS algorithm
- Work as an effective team member in a cardiac arrest

Training Methods

- E-learning
- Pre reading
- Hands-on Skills Workshops
- ALS scenarios and assessment

Training Technologies

- Moderate fidelity manikin simulators

ALS is NSLHD & ANZCA Accredited

Maximum Participants

12

Course Duration

1/2 day course (4.5hours)

Course Date 2018

TBA

Cost

$495 (Including GST)

Course Co-ordinator

Anne Starr
Nurse Educator
Anne.Starr@health.nsw.gov.au
Other faculty include: Critical Care Fellows & Nurse Educators

Enquiries

nslhd-smisc@health.nsw.gov.au

Ph: (02) 9926 4646

Fax: (02) 9926 6755

Advanced Life Support