

SYDNEY SIM-POSIUM

With special guest: Jenny Rudolph

The Sydney Clinical Skills and Simulation Centre would like to invite simulation enthusiasts from Greater Sydney to come together for an afternoon of learning and networking.

Jenny Rudolph will join us to give a keynote address as well as facilitate exercises to help us reflect and work on how to enhance our feedback and debriefing conversations.

We will also start the discussion about how to develop and nurture a community of practice amongst the Greater Sydney Simulation Community.
